PICTURES NEEDED! Jim Wheeler and Barb Wickham have been preserving Banwell Church memories in albums found on the easel inside the front foyer and on a nearby desk. As events happen, they would be happy to have people involved pass photos on to them with perhaps a short written description of the significance of the event and their name as a follow-up person to help journal the facts and names. Any photos not used will certainly be returned so they find a good home. Four to ten photos tell a great story.
